"V" for VICTIMS

Ancient Symbol of Kohanim

THEY Are the re-Organizers of U.S.A.

V stands for victims and we are the victims who must pay for the war not only with cash and the lease-lend products of our fields and factories, mines and labor, but even with our manhood and independence from foreign dominion.

V stands for the end of American constitutional government when two men can meet on a British battleship and decide the fate of the world. We are the victims of it, for we are the richest nation which is being looted and stripped, bonded and mortgaged to enthrone the Rothschilds, the Sassoons, the Lehmans and the "other" financial tyrants and expoiters whom the world is to exchange for Hitler and Mussolini, since Roosevelt and Churchill have promised to protect Stalin. We are the victims of Communism for whom we must produce "defense".

Last week's issue of THE BROOM carried this timely information which is too important to forget.

AN ANCIENT SYMBOL

Stranger than story, almost is the new realization now that the sign of V has for thousands of years been a significant symbol in the religion of the Jews, most persecuted of all by the Nazis For centuries the Kohanim, descedants of the priestly tribe of the temple which Titus destroyed 2,000 years ago, have formed a V with the fingers of the hands in bestowing the blessing on assembled worshippers.

The hands are upraised during the priestly blessing with the thumb, the first and middle fingers seperated from the ring fingers in an unmistakable sign of the V. The ancient significance is that the rays of the Shekinah, or manifestation of Gad, may stream upon those assembled—but the coincidence of this V sign adds weight to the almost frantic devotion with which men everywhere who still hope for liberty are clutching for support on the sign today.

THEY Are Our Masters, U. S. the Victim

Just who is remaking the U. S.? General Hugh Johnson gives the inside dope:

And now we're going to fix it all up. And who do you suppose are now revealed as the architects of this new structure for the mobilization and administration of the great American industrial complex? None other than a couple of guys of the lighter and brighter days of presidential pleasantry toward the White House janissariat, when knights of that round-table were yclept by the boss even as King Arthur did,Henry the Morgue (Morgenthau), Tommy the Cork (Corcoran), Harry the Hop (Hopkins), Leon the Hen (Henderson), Benny the Cone (Cohen), and Sammy the Rose (Rosenman), etc. The last two have been recalled to the siege perilous to reorient the cosmic chaos of this industrial and economic universe.

THEY Are A Stiffnecked People

The Biblical prophets bemoaned the fate of the Jews as a stiffnecked people who persisted in violating the Ten Commandments and brought shame and misery down upon their own heads. This attitude of attempting to rule the world contrary to the rule of God, this rebellion by which tenacious minds scheme and scheme and press the plan of subverting the whole world, is the cause of existing wars and turmoils.

'Revolution Against God'
Blamed for 'State of World'

NEW YORK,—Representatives of German-American Catholic societies were told by Rev. Anthony T. Strauss, of St. Charles, Mo., spiritual director of the National Catholic Women's union, that the present state of the World war was due to a "revolution against God," and rebellion against moral law.

Delegates from 1034 societies in 17 states met in convention here.

Strauss said "the case of our generation is not hopeless . . . a sincere return to Christianity will restore to us moral health and true happiness".

ROSENVELT'S Victims Believed His Promises

After telling us "again and again" that "your sons" will not be sent into participation in the European war, here is what the new deal President Rosenvelt has in store for his victims who voted for him, believing what he promised.

After his return from the secret conspiracy between Rosenvelt and Churchill the President distributed among the press correspondents at the White House an interview which Lincoln is supposed to have given a group of women.

It was an excerpt from Carl Sandburg's "Abraham Lincoln—The War Years", and told of an interview between Lincoln and a group of women, led by Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, of Chicago. It happened a year after the Civil war began. The excerpt follows:

" 'I have no word of encouragement to give,' was the slow, blunt, reply (of President Lincoln). 'The military situation is far from right; and the country knows it as well as I do.'

"The women were silent. They knew it was a heart-to-heart talk, that he was telling them what he could not well tell the country, that he was frankly relieving the burden of an overweighted mind. It was a silence of a moment, but 'deep and painful,' said Mrs. Livermore.

QUOTATION CONTINUED

"The president went on: "The fact is the people have not yet made up their minds that we are at war with the South. They have not buckled down to the determination to fight this war through; for they have got the idea into their heads that we are going to get out of this fix somehow by strategy! That's the word—strategy! General McClellan thinks he is going to whip the rebels by strategy; and the army has got the same notion.

"They have no idea that the war is to be carried on and put through by hard, tough fighting, that it will hurt somebody; and no headway is going to be made while this delusion lasts."

'INTERNATIONAL PARALLEL'

Mr. Roosevelt read the excerpt to the correspendents, paused and said it contained a rather interesting parallel with the present situation.

Then, driving home his point with a sharp, incisive manner of speaking, the president said that a year after the Civil war started the people of the North had not awakened to the fact that they had a war to win. In response to a question, he said he had the service extension vote in mind as well as other things in making his statement.

Refreshed by the voyage, which included the historic Churchill meeting, Mr. Roosevelt was in obviously high spirits. His answers to questions were made quickly and directly.

PRESIDENT IN HIGH SPIRITS

Notice that the "success" of pledging this country to defeat Hitler and keep Germany disarmed "forever", which brought Hitler into power in the first instance as a result of the one-sided disarmament at Versailles; had refreshed the President and kept him in high spirits. But the U. S. is to be bled white to bring about such a condition of slavery upon Europe. The people of Europe will no more accept a permanent condition of disarmament while England and Russia would remain armed, than they accepted the treaty of Versailles. That means, then, that the U. S. would have to keep them down "forever" and what do you imagine the result will be? A new era of plotting and counterplotting till a new regime is placed in England and Russia and then ALL of Europe, Asia and Africa will sail, fly and march to fight the U. S. to free themselves from our armed imposition of whatever terms a "victory" might impose upon the old worlds. It will be three continents, or four, against the U. S. A. should the Roosevelt-Churchill pact ever "succeed".

The Sovereign American Citizen

(Over KGB, Tuesday 8:30 pm, August 19)

The great question the whole world over is: Should peoples everywhere follow the Leader or should the Executive be the Chief Servant of the people?

Germany has answered it by making the Reichstag a means by which the Leader tells the people what he wants them to do. General Petain in Vichy is demanding an oath of personal loyalty to himself, from every office holder on the French payroll. Joe Stalin is Russia, literarily, his will is law. Mussolini has abolished representative government.

In the U. S. we are confronted with the question of socialism in more ways than one. Should we discard the old time tradition of American individual sovereignity of the citizen, guaranteed by the Constitution and envisioned by the Declaration of Independence, as something out-of-date, belonging to the horse and buggy age, and should we in its place reform our government along socialistic lines? When we see where socialism landed the National Socialists in Germany and Italy and the Russian socialists in the Soviet Republic, should we not pause to analyze the trend to see whether it is a step forward or a step backward, when a nation like ours starts discarding the 165 years of individual sovereignity of the American citizen for the New Deal of following the Leader and letting him to the deciding for us and giving him billions in blank checks to hire his subordinates to regulate us, who are nominally the masters of the government, our government?

Few people realize what the game of 'Follow the Leader' actually produces in practice. Like the children of Israel, many imagine that if the rule by the Judges is abolished, the Supreme Court packed and a king is placed at the head of the nation whose word becomes a MUST command upon the congress, our troubles would be solved and everybody would be taken care of. Now let's look at some of the instances of such a policy. While Presdient Roosevelt is not yet our king and not yet a dictator comparable to Hitler and Stalin, we have gone a long way on the road where the citizen must submit to being regulated by his subordinates.

Who OWNS The Land ?

As a student of economics I have spoken to many groups of citizens in San Diego on the matter of taxation and I have written many articles about it. The average American imagines that there is such a thing as a property right which is inviolate in the U. S.—The truth of the matter is, that the state, the federal government actually holds title to the land on which your socalled private property is located, and at all times the state or the federal government can take it back from you on such terms as the respective government decides to pay you, or takes it away outright without any payment, as in the case where you lose your property for non-payment of taxes. The government has the power to tax you out of your property. It is quite plain that at no time did you have a clear title to your own property but at all times you were holding it in trust for the government until it sees fit to take it back, even there where you are the producer of such private property and the creator thereof, not only not aided by the government, but often hampered.

And not only land falls in that category, but personal property and intangibles as well. It was demonstrated in the abrogation of the gold clause and the comandeering of the stocks of gold by the federal administration which did not pay the full market value of the gold but issued paper worth only 59c on the dollar in gold.

In my public lectures I have stated repeatedly that you don't own your automobile outright, but are renting it from the government by paying a yearly rental, called a tax. Now your rental is augmented by a $5 a year to the federal administration in addition to your state rental. Stop paying that rental, called tax and see who will take the car. That's the real owner.

The same with your home. You have no absolute title to it. You rent it from the city, the county, the state. Stop paying your rental in the form of taxes and see who takes it back. That's the real owner.

Pacific Beach Housing Project

And the people in Pacific Beach are now realizing it even in another way. The federal administration has decided to build a housing project in the heart of Pacific Beach and has ordered dispossession of the present occupants. Many of them have come now to the realization, like the people who had invested their life savings in gold, that they do not own the homes and the land on which they built. The federal government owned it all the time and merely permitted them to live there. Now when the administration wants the land back it simply

CONGRESSMAN SUED IN MINE STOCK DEAL

WASHINGTON,—Mrs. Louise B. Gove, a department store saleswoman, has filed suit in United States district court seeking $12,567 from Rep. Andrew J. May (D-Ky) and four others on the ground they sold her worthless stock in a West Virginia manganese mine.

Other defendants named in the suit were Mrs. Julia G. May, wife of the Kentucky representative; M. A. Martin, and Walter E. Blount, of Washington, and A. J. E. Mullen, of Baltimore. All were described as officers of the Greenbrier Mining Corp.

AMERICA IN DANGER

Chas. B. Hudson, writing from Omaha, Nebraska, presents the following timely information in his weekly bulletin:

Now let's go back to 1929—before Hitler and before NUDEAL. The magazine GODLESS published in Moscow carried cartoon showing monstrous "V" (with smaller "hammer & sickle" inside the "V") crushing Jehovah, God and Allah. As Dr. Wm. D. Herrstrom, evangelist and editor BIBLE NEWS FLASHES (317 W. Lake St.,, Minneapolis, Minn.—25c per yr.) says in Aug. '41 issue: ". .. . There is nothing new about this 'V'. It represents the crushing out of all forms of religion as one can readily ascertain by a glance at the cartoon . . . The hammer and sickle represent the worker and the agriculturist whom the 'Reds' hope to organize to overthrow Christianity, Capitalism (which is their term for all private ownership of property); and all ordered governments the world around. Thus the 'V' represents 'Victory' for the forces of anti-Christianity.

The 'V' represents international revolution—the overthrow of all governments not favorable to Soviet Russia—sabotage and fifth column activity to destroy nations from within. It is time for the USA to take her stand against the 6,000,000 Communists and sympathizers in our country and the 2,850 'known Communists' in 'key' positions in the New Deal govt (according to Chmn. Dies)"

Front page of BIBLE NEWS FLASHES reproduces the "V" cartoon. You should have it.

THEY Are the Terrorists

By FERDINAND C. M. JAHN
United Press Staff Correspondent

At least 2,000,000 Jews face economic annihilation, suppression and perhaps worse as a result of German occupation of Bessarabia and most of the Ukraine.

A number of prominent Jewish leaders come from that region. The wife of Chaim Weitzman, Zonist head, was born in Nikolaev.

It cannot be doubted that in Adolph Hitler's "holy war" against the Jews, they will be stricken heavily. The Jews, with their pronounced racial characteristics, cannot pass themselves off as "Aryans". The rank and file of south Russian and Rumanian Jews, especially the elder generation, are pious, fatalistic and apathetic. They may be expected to submit to persecutions, seeing therein a visitation by God.

JEWISH COMMISSARS

From the younger Jews, however, come a large percentage of revolutionaries and terrorists. This has been true since Tsarist days. These probably will fight with every means at their command and no doubt figure prominently among the guerrillas now causing the Germans heavy losses behind the Nazi lines.

"V" for Victims of Jewish Terrorists

During the German occupation of the Ukraine in the last war, the terrorists who killed the German ambassador Count Mirbach, in Moscow, were headed by a Ukrainian Jew named Blumkin. Jews also led the fight against the German puppet, Hetman Petliura, who proved himself Hitler's precursor in persecuting Jews. He later was assassinated in Paris by a young Ukraninian Jew whose parents had been among the victims of the Hetman's persecutions.

MILLIONS OF CHRISTIANS MURDDERED BY COMMISSARS

Such Jews doubtless will form an important element in a savage subterranean war against the Germans in which no quarter is given.

All Aid to Everybody Except Americans

Mr. de Aryan:

I am listening to your radio broadcasts and I want to tell you, you are not giving them hell enough. Look at us taxpayers here in San Dego.

Aid to Britain and aid to China; aid to Russia, money, supplies and food; but we the taxpeyers must pay for it all and what do we get?

All we get is a higher tax rate from the city council for supporting the aircraft workers and being run over by them in our streets. Those aircraft workers drive like fools, it's getting so a person is not safe in going out on the street, whether walking or drivng a car.

And what do we property owners get? More assessments. I protested the paving of an alley back of Oregon street, but the Mayor and his Charlie McCarthies on the council, all seven of them simply over-ruled me. They don't have to pay the bill, but they soaked me $90 and I must pay or lose my property.

Why don't we taxpayers get a break?

Mr. de Aryan, you are right! But you don't give them hell enough. This country is being run for the British and all aid to Chinese, with the Communists thrown in for good measure, but no aid to us taxpayers. Where is that getting us?

A TAXPAYER.

Prepare for war, we fight, kill, and make misery.
Work for peace, vote for peace, give us peace.

Health Dept. to Close 159 Boarding Houses

My telephone rang last Friday noon. "I want to talk to Mr. de Aryan, the editor of THE BROOM," said a lady's voice.

"I am he." — "Mr. de Aryan, I was advised by one of your subscribers to call you up and tell you that the City Board of Health has decided to put me out of business and bankrupt me and 159 boarding house owners. The city has licensed us to open up boarding houses, but now they are trying to close us by telling us that we must not keep more than 10 boys, each. That will break me, because I have 26 and they like my boarding house. Evidently the government housing projects are a flop, because the boys prefer to live in private boarding houses and now the Health Department is being used to force tenants into the government project. I am in debt to the bank $8500 and to the furniture people $1400, I owe the wholesale grocer $500 and for the frigidaires and other kitchen equipment $700."

"Who told you to get rid of the boarders above 10 in number?"

"Mr. Ed Beale, from the Health Department. He said he would serve papers on me for violation of the ordinance which states that I am running a Hotel because I have more than 10 boarders. I am Irish and I am going to fight and I was told that you would fight with us boarding house owners. There are 159 of us who believed what the city council said when they relaxed the rules to take care of the aircraft workers, and we went into debt to equip ourselves for it. Now they changed the rules over night and want to ruin us."

AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE'S POLL

In San Diego the America First Committee is mailing out postal cards, with reply cards attached, containing the following:

IMPORTANT! DEFENSE!
Unless we get into war first, a big defense program will not only help our prosperity, but will ultimately keep war from our shores

We are working to keep out of war—at least until we are prepared.

We need your help. See attached U. S. postcard.

(The postal card contains the following:)

Please tear off and mail this U. S. postcard.

I want to help our President keep war away from us.
Signed .....
Addres .....

What Is America First Committee Trying to Do?

This postcard poll is very unfortunately conceived and executed. In the first place, a big defense program does not help prosperity because it produces debt and not constructive goods. It helps to BOND the U. S. and not to free it from bondage. And under the lease-lend arrangement everything we produce for "defense" is likely to be given away.

Does "America First" intend to put people on the spot as a "loyalty" test?

And if you answer in the affirmative, the tabulation can be used to multiply the powers of the BUROCRACY to destroy little business right and left, as a "defense" incident to priority rules, by publishing the "overwhelming" poll in favor of more of it.

Were George Washington in the White House, naturally, we could trust him to defend AMERICA, that is the U. S. A. against Britain as well as all other governments, including Russia, who are subverting American Independence and self-government. But we have Franklin D. in the White House who subordinates our country to Britain and Russia, and relegates the Constitution to the horse and buggy age, staffing his federal key positions with Red Front sympathisers.

Russia, Britain and Jerusalem have already invaded and captured America without firing one single shot. We are paying them tribute and financing THEIR wars. We are regimenting and disrupting our business and private lives to defend THEIR interests, not ours.

An honest to goodness poll should be phrased: Should the U S. army, navy and marines start shooting up German and Japanese troops and vessels?

Destroying America

WASHINGTON,— Among some of the more radical new dealers, to whom Mr. Hopkins is an idol, are many, still in government, who believe and have said that government control and socialization of property and income, are desirable and that they can be achieved quietly, subtly and without revolution by spending, taxing and the incurment of public debt until the government to all intents and purposes does own or control everything in the country. They also have said that the political power necessary to do this is easily retained by a simple formula best expressed by Mr. Hopkins himself; "Tax and tax and spend and spend and elect and elect." Well, we are surely on our way.—General Hugh S. Johnson.

Compliments to the President

The success which attended the issue of the three-cent postage stamps bearing our Flag was remarkable. A new issue, a League of Nations issue, might be arranged. The President, I feel convinced, could be readily induced to pray that His Majesty condescend to grace with His Royal countenance all stamps of a value of 30 cents and under. His Majesty in reply, with the tact which distinguishes him, could suggest that inasmuch as the League was essentially a union of the English-speaking world in which the President's authority was no less than His Majesty's, the stamps should be adorned with the Royal and the Presidential countenances, cheek by jowl, and that the Presidential should be foremost. A suggestion has been made to me that excerpts from the President's speeches should be printed in English school books. This would doubtless please the schoolmaster in the President— and it would enable us to introduce our school books into this country. A further suggestion, namely, that a playing card should be called, The President, and should carry his picture, ranking in play above the ace, king and queen, a substitute for the joker. I mention but do not advocate. Perhaps instead of these scattered suggestions I should submit to you a complete plan for the blandishment of the President; but the flowering of the myth of the birth of a hero, which his Carlisle speech disclosed, together with the evidence in his subsequent discourses of a spacious and grandios development in his powers of self-hypnotism, made me feel that his mental complexes, since I last studied them, had undergone changes which, not having investigated, I could not analyze, far less perfect a plan to sublimate them on behalf of His Majesty's Government. Moreover, I felt confident that the opportunity of the Peace Conference had been used by you to chart every mood and relation of the President, and that arrangements had been made not merely to predict but to predestinate the President's conduct.

Standing Behind the President

Nevertheless, it would be well quickly to reinforce him in the Presidency of the League of Nations by staking the first session of the League in Washington. This will convince these simple people that they are the League and its power resides in them. Their pride in this power should be exalted. Perhaps, you, yourself, might condescend to visit this country. Or, if that be impracticable, you might send such noble statesmen, and stately statesmen, as will suffice to make of the first League session a specactle of unsurpassed brilliance. Indeed, it would be well to commence at an early date a series of spectacles by which the mob may be diverted from any attempt to think too much of matters beyond their province. The success of the Joffre, Viviani, Balfour, and other missons in amusing the people while the country was quietly put into the war, shows that similar missions would likewise amuse the people—while the country was quietly put into the League. I would suggest that missions of Thanksgiving to America be organized, and that His Majesty, the King of the Belgians, Cardinal Mercier, Field Marshall Foch, Venizelos, and an eminent Italian or two, be sent seriatim.

While awaiting these diversions for the vulgar, we are incessantly instructing them in the wonders of the League. Its praises are thundered by our Press, decreed by our college presidents, and professed by our professors. Our authors, writers, and lecturers are analyzing its selected virtues for whomsoever will read or listen. As will be seen from Appendix 39, circulars issued by the League of Nations Committee, we have enlisted eight thousand pulpiteers or propagandists for the League. We have organized international and national synods, consistories, committees, conferences, convocations, conventions, councils, congresses and assemblies, as well as their state, municipal, and district equivalents, to herald the birth of the League as the dawn of universal peace. A special Sunday will be observed as League Sunday in all churches. In this connection may I remark that the appointment of Mr. Raymond Fosdick to the Secretariat of the League, has pleased not only the Rockefeller interests, but also the less disingenuous uplifters, for it stamps the League as an endowed organization for promiscuous uplifting, under the tripple crown of religion, respectability, & finance. Agriculturists, bankers, brokers, chartered accountants, chemists, and all other functional groups capable of exerting organized professional, business, financial, or social pressure, are meeting to endorse the League in the name of peace, progress and prosperity.

Mr. Gompers has persuaded or dragooned the American Federation of Labour to pass a resolution in favor of the League. True, he had to placate the Irish members first by a resolution indorsing independence for Ireland, but that having achieved its purpose may now be forgotten, or added to the futile Senate and Congressional Resolutions of the same support. The Labour delegates have apparently constructed the League, as a contract by which Russian, Chinese and Mexican workers have won the war for the weak. The League of Small Free German Nations, under the aegis of Mr. Thomas Lamont, having fed and taught all who could lunch and listen, has been linked with the Carnegie Trust League to enforce peace against Germany, under whose auspices Mr. Taft has been dizzly touring. We have induced the Carnegie Trustees to send him on yet another tour, of fifteen states, and we are simultaneously sending out 2,000 speakers to the labour centers, and 4,000 to the farmers.

The World's Peace Foundation has issued for us a series of League of Nations Pamphlets, which, with our other Literature, tax the mails to the limit of their capacity. Our Film concerns are preparing an epoch-making picture entitled, "The League of Nations". In brief, our entire system of thought control is working ceaselessly, tirelessly, ruthlessly, to insure the adoption of the League. And it WILL be ADOPTED, for business wants peace, the righteous can not resist a Covenant, and the politicians, after shadow-boxing for patronage purses, will yield valiantly lest the fate of the wanton and wilful pursue them.

Good THOUGHT

Good WORD — Good DEED

THE MAZDAZNAN PHILOSOPHY

By Dr. O. Z. Ha'nish

Recognizing in himself the great possibilities unto achievements, he must know that "the earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof", and placed here in charge of the treasures of Life, he realizes the necessity of purpose with the words of the Avestan Ainyahita:

"I am here upon this Earth
To reclaim the Earth;
To turn the deserts into a Paradise;
A Paradise most suitable unto God
And His Associates to dwell therein."

To the extent man is able to apply this covenant made with Mazda and His Associates, of whom he is one, he soon recognizes the necessity of proper tactics and diplomacy, since the world in general shall appear to him as if "thru a glass dimly". The discovery will soon be made by the man of good reason, judgment, logic, discrimination, comparison and deduction, that the only safeguard in the midst of contradiction is the Shield of Zarathushtra—"Good Thought, Good Word, Good Deed". With these passwords man is able to conquer the world and all that is therein.

As by nature man is a social being the necessity of the knowledge of human nature suggests itself. To more readily get to the fundamentals of man's characteristics Nature soon discloses to the thinker that beside the five principal races, the black, brown, green, dusk and white—the red simply being a race of mixture—the intermingling of blood beween the one or the other, and all, must be considered. And again, the origin of characteristics which partly harmonize and blend with one another, or stand in contradiction and opposition to each other, must needs be weighted from every possible standpoint. Furthermore, that these beings are either largely physical, or to a great extent spiritual, and again, others more intellectual, one must be able to determine and read human nature correctly. The strongest and foremost tendency in man is the basis unto the individual, and that basis is determined by the entity itself in accordance to the desire the ego entertained at the time of its conception. The two companions of the base, the negative and positive, turn into inclinations, so that the man intellectually based is spiritually and materially inclined; the man spiritually based is materially and intellectually inclined, while the materially based is intellectually and spiritually inclined. To the degree these inclinations are either endowed during the process of gestation or cultivated by the individual thru opportunities, the basis determines the success or failure of man. To this end man is a free being to choose for better or worse.

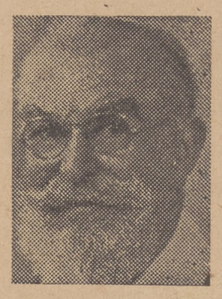
BROILED SQUASH

LOS ANGELES,—We enjoyed the Carrot Loaf made from Mrs. de Aryan's receipe, very much. Here is another dish that everyone likes, which some of your readers may like to try:



Dr. Geo. Starr White

Slice Italian Squash about one-fourth inch thick. Sprinkle the slices with seasoning, and dredge lightly with wholewheat flour.

Sprinkle generously with Seasame-Seed Oil. On a baking-sheet which has been rubbed with a cut clove of garlic and oiled lightly, place the slices of squash.

Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) for twenty to thirty minutes, or until very tender when tried with a fork.

If not sufficiently brown, the squash may be slipped under the broiling flame for a few minutes.

WHY SERUMS AND VACCINES FOR DRAFTEES ?

By Dr. Jesse Mercer Gehman

Many people have asked, and rightly so, "Why are our boys who pass the physical examination to serve their country forced to be injected with serums and vaccines?" No one appears to know except the manufacturers of serums and vaccines who receive a handsome profit from the business of selling them to your Uncle Sam.

A horse costing $75.00 is capable of producing as much as $75,000.00 worth of vaccine or serum. Of course there is some other overhead as feeding, technicians, stabling, advertising, marketing, and so on, but it is obvious that the profit is quite generous after these items are deducted.

Considering that profits on drugs are considerably lower than vaccine profits, perhaps we have one reason here for the urge to maintain the false theory of vaccine and serum therapy.

If your physician vaccinates or serumizes you, you pay him a fee depending upon the type of vaccine or serum used. If your local board of health vaccinates you, you still pay in actual money and the same is true of your government, though you are no party to an immediate cash exchange.

Boards of Health vaccinate and serumize the people of their respective communities with purchases they make from vaccine and serum manufacturers from the approprition they receive each year. As a taxpayer you contribute to the budget. The same is true with respect to your government.

The mythical power of vaccine, serums and anti-toxins is constantly being driven into the public mind by persistent propaganda, of a nature equally vicious, though less blatant than the cigarette advertising howling from bill boards from coast to coast, from magazine from cover to cover, and from every loudspeaker in America.

The majority of editors are only too happy to carry the story of an epochal dash by dog sled or clipper to some remote corner of the globe to save a human life with some new type of serum or vaccine or perhaps one already used but the sales of which may have dropped off.

Many of our foremost physicians and scientists oppose the theory of vaccine, serum and anti-toxin therapy, for they have closely observed the results have been such as to condemn the use of these nostrums as highly dangerous.

You can be sure that very few such physicians are in power on our local boards of Health or in the United States Public Health Service, or the military service of the country. If they were in power, it would be most disadvantageous to the manufacturers of vaccines and serums as you can readily see.

Municipal, county and Federal appropriations are virtually necessary to a continuance of their business of manufactures of pus which is sold on the pretense of preventing, resisting or counteracting disease.

It has been proven time and again that fewer people develop smallpox who have never had the socalled protection of vaccination; while vaccination actually increases the liability to not only smallpox but other diseases as well.

There is not a single physician who cannot point out cases in his practice that he has observed first hand in which the person's decline in health dated from the time of vaccination or the use of serum or anti-toxin. And too, there is not a single physician who can truthfully state that in his own practice he has not observed some horrible sights developing after the use of apparently harmless vaccine or serum.

But physicians, even as bricklayers, merchants, and all others are subject to the political pressure of local health boards, county state and national medical associations, all of which are either closely allied with, or subject to the influence of representatives of vaccine, serum and anti-toxin manufacturers.

Those physicians who have reached prominence and whose stability cannot be shaken by the clamoring of any powers that be, are more free to express themselves and they do not hesitate to do so.

Among these in our present day there have been none more outspoken than George Starr White, M. D., of Los Angeles, who probably has enjoyed the largest individual practice of any physician in the country, if not the world.

Commenting on the uselessness of vaccinations and inoculations, Dr. White wrote of an interesting experience he had in connection with the mass inoculation of our boys in the service. We quote from Dr. White's letter:

"Recently a medical major of the army was in my office. After he had made sure that no one else was in hearing distance, he said that he wanted to tell me something, but that he would be court martialed if his name were used. He said that he used to think that I was biased in my opinions regarding vivisection and serums and vaccines, but that his experience in the World War had taught him that vivisection makes brutes of the young doctors as well as the older ones. He said a great many of them just delighted in torturing the sick soldiers. He said he had been thru hell fire, but the lack of feeling and sympathy shown by the majority of docotrs palled on his mind more than anything else. As for the serums and vaccines used in the army, he said he considered that they did only harm, and that there must be some nigger in the wood pile or they would never be used. He said he had seen thousands made sick from their use and a great many killed by them, but never had he seen a single instance where they did any good. Sanitation, he said, was the real preventive of disease."

The "nigger in the wood pile" of which this medical major of the U. S. Army was suspicious as the cause of mass inoculation in the face of the disastrous results which he described, is the vast commercial interests involved in the manufacture of animal pus, known as vaccine and serum related further back in this article. —Nature's Path.

The Four Freedoms

New London Draftee Gest 3-Month Sentence

FORT DEVENS, Mass.,—Pvt. Anthony J. Perrone, 29, New London, Conn., a draftee, began his first full day of a three-month sentence after he was escorted to the guard house at pistol point from a court martial in the post headquarters building.

Perrone's troubles started when he allegedly refused to undergo an inoculation. Officers said he produced two poison tablets and threatened to swallow them rather than be inoculated.

After sentence was passed by the court martial and he was ordered to take a seat in the corridor, Perrone allegedly threatened a guard. He was ordered removed to the guard house.

En route he twice repeated the threat—"to kill" the guard. As a result the latter loosened his pistol in his holster and, gripping Perrone with his free hand, forced him to walk to the guard house.

tells them to vacate and pays them what it decides. Such residents, of course, are terribly shocked to discover that the money offered them for the land and home would not enable them to buy an equivalent piece of land and build an equivalent type of home elsewhere. And these residents appeared before the city council in San Diego and asked for proection against the federal administration. The city council can do nothing except say, as Councilman Simpson said in open meeting: "If that is democracy, then it's not worth defending". The only solace the residents have is that they can go to court. But if they do, they have to hire lawyers and pay other court expenses and by the time the thing is adjudicated they would have less in net cash than what the administration offers to pay now. So this rude awakening to the reality of things is quite painful.

Now the question was, as said, should people give up the right and the duty to rule themselves in exchange for following their Leader, be it Germany or America. When the Leader decides to regiment the people, can the American form of government continue?

In the case of the people of Pacific Beach, the occasion for the order of vacating their properties arose out of the fact that the government is putting state socialism, national socialism into practice by building a huge housing project. In this way it not only competes with private housing projects and industries, but actually demonstrates that the individual citizen has not inviolate ownership right to his property. And he is not the judge of what its replacement value is, nor is the current market price of replacement the standard by which he is being paid for the loss of his property.

But let's see how the common renter of such government projects is faring at the hands of the government. This is national socialism in action.

Opposite the Marine Base the government has erected a group of two story buildings, divided in four apartments, each. The reason for the erection of this federal housing project was that San Diego did not have enough homes for the accomodation of low type renters. While private enterprise was getting ready to build such houses, suddenly the federal administration announced its project and by that killed the private enterprise who could not possibly compete with the federal treasury. And it was announced that the federal rentals would be lower and more reasonable than the private rentals. The project is finished. And here is a case.

A civil service employee, working at the marine base as a laborer, gets $97 a month wages. When he and his wife moved into the one bedroom apartment, the government charged him $15 rent, plus $1.50 for water and he pays his own gas and light at an average of $5, more or less, per month. This made his housing bill $21.50 per month, leaving him $75.50 for living expenses. So he decided to buy his own furniture and contracted for $14 monthly payments. That leaves him now $61.50 for himself and his wife. Living costs are going up every week but instead of getting a raise in wages, the federal government raised his rent $5 per month. Now that leaves him only $56.50. Still, since he has moved in and could not possibly find another residence, especially since private enterprise has been stymied by the government competing housing projects, the government announced another raise in rent of $5 effective September 1. This raises his monthly housing expense to $25 rent for the single bedroom apartment, $1.50 for water, gas and light, $14 for the furniture, a total of $45.50 or practically half his wages.

This brings home to the small wage earner that national socialism is not what it was claimed to be. When the government goes into business and destroys competition, the private citizen suffers both ways. First, he has to finance the government against himself, then the government starts charging in rentals and in taxes any amount to cover up the deficit. And the individual citizen is powerless to protect himself. All we can do is inform the public of what is going on.

Sassoon vs. Japan

But state socialism has yet another aspect. When England went to war against China to force the Chinese to buy opium from the Sassoon interests, of which Sir Isac Sassoon is the financial head today, so that we see a rivalry in the Orient between Japanese and English cultivators and dealers in the poppy, we had a pure case of the British government fighting the Chinese government to maintain a monopoly in vice. In California, and especially in San Diego, we are being treated to a similar spectacle. The state of California has officially become the Big Gambler who rents out the gambling monopoly to its various race promoters for a share in the gambling profits. Now in order to protect its lease

Taxpayers May Sue

Dear Mr. de Aryan,

About thirty years ago I had occasion to look into the Taxpayers suit as a means of recovering for the People monies illegally expended, and back in 1937 got to work on it again in re the Nude Eel wasting of tax money.

In my original study I was coached by a former Federal Judge. Of this later study I first submitted my thesis to Hon. Gilbert O. Nations, former head of the Law department of a large eastern university.

After the Kissinger & Spottswood memorandum was rendered I published the whole matter as per enclosed copy but could never induce anyone to finance a suit.

Frank Knox, Frank Gannett, Ham Fish and scores of other notables and legal lights wrote to express their delight with my work and to hope I'd file the suits but I had not the means and they had.

Our nation today is in the hands of the most ruthlessly lawless gang of crooks that ever gathered under one roof. I have written and told several of them so in just as explicit language as this.

Possiblly if you'd publish this in California some one would have the financial and intestinal fortitude to file them, now that such utter disregard for law and for offcial oaths are on public display.

After publishing I printed hundreds of reprints for circulation over the nation but they are all gone long ago. Filed in the face of election it would cramp their style.

No candidate before 1932 ever got 20 million votes. Windy Willkie got 23 and was beaten because every big criminal machine from coast to coast was stealing wholesale to run the Jew boy out ahead and put over their Union Now scheme.

Use this if you wish. It might cause a stirring of gray matter among some sleepy heads. Unless something is done soon we are sunk.

HUBERT H. HEATH.

Editor, The Herald, Hot Springs, New Mex.

the state is making war on the little gamblers, the bookmakers of San Diego, while the racing is going on at the Del Mar race track. There could be no lower degradation of government and its functions, than when it enters the field of vice and uses the sovereign powers of government to fight its competitors.

Japan, as we all can see, has not given up the fight for the opium trade, controlled by the Sassoon family of Sir Isac Sassoon, in China. Few people realize what is going on in the Orient. Much is said about democracy, but very little about the war for the opium trade, the most profitable income of Great Britain, for the Sassoons grow the poppy in India. The recent reply of Japan to the announcement of the socalled 8 points decided upon by the Roosevelt-Churchill secret meeting at sea, is given in the United Press reports as follows: "TOKYO,—Newpapers loosed a torrent of abuse against President Roosevelt and Prime Miniser Churchill for their joint war aims declaration, charging hat it is part of an intensified campaign to encircle Japan, a scheme for Anglo-American domination of the world."

In California gambling in race horses has become a state monopoly and the state is prosecuting the other gamblers. In the Orient the opium trade is precipitating a war again. On one side are arrayed the Sassoon interests protected by England and the U. S. A., on the other side is Japan. China is their victim.

Recovery of Tax Money Illegally Expended

A Discussion of the Right of a Taxpayer to Sue and Recover Tax Money That Has Been Illegally Expended.

(From The Herald, Hot Springs, N. M.)

Several months ago the editor of The Herald raised the question of the bringing of Taxpayer's Suits to recover monies illegally expended by the New Deal administration.

Millions (yes, billions) have been expended in direct and open violation of the law, wilfully and maliciously.

In the year following the Supreme Court decision that the NIRA was an illegal organization, and the act founding it was null and void, the administration spent more money on it than during the preceeding year. This is only one case in point.

We submitted them to a leading legal light in Washington, D. C., with the suggestion that Taxpayer's Suits be filed against the Secretary of the Treasury and the President, if that be found feasible, to recover such funds for the people.

The gentleman replied, saying that it was one of the most interesting legal questions he had ever heard raised and that it was so important that it should be submitted to a staff of competent attorneys for comprehensive study.

The gentleman said, at a guess, a suit might lie against the Secretary of the Treasury but questioned whether a suit would lie against the President.

However, the Constitution provides: "He (the President) shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed" and when he wantonly wastes the people's funds on an illegal organization, after our highest Court has unanimously decided that it is illegal, we hold the people are entitled to redress.

The right of a Taxpayer to sue to recover public monies illegally expended, or to enjoin to prevent illegal expenditure, is an old, established right under our system of government.

Money willfully spent in defiance of law should be recovered. Hundreds of millions have been wantonly wasted for ulterior purposes.

Feeling the public Treasury should be protected, we submitted the question to Attorney Kissinger, of Kansas City, whose writings have been appearing in this publication, for study.

We have been holding the written opinion of Mr. Kissinger and his associate, Mr. Spottswood, for further study. Mr. Kissinger writes:

"Your request for a statement on the right of a Taxpayer to file a Taxpayer's suit to recover tax money illegally expended was a large assignment. I was busy and so requested my associate, Mr. Spottswood, to lend a hand. Enclosed find copy of our conclusions. Sincerely, H. D. Kissinger."

MEMORANDUM

August 31, 1937.

For use in study of the question, whether public officers may not be made to respond in damages for public funds UN-constitutionally, and therefore, wrongfully expended under unconstitutional and therefore void congressional enactments.

It is believed that judicial decisions may be found sustaining the following propositions:

1. Where one (public officers not excepted) wilfully and maliciously acts wrongfully, with resulting injury, he may be made to respond in damages to the injured party.

2. Since everyone must be presumed to know the law, whether by public officer or private person, must be held to have been wilful.

3. And since, where lawless acts are committed wilfully, MALICE IS PRESUMED, it follows that, where acts are lawlessly committed to the injury of another, the wrong doer must be held to have acted wilfully and maliciously, and to be answerable in damages for injuries resulting from his acts.

4. The rule just stated applies, in reason even more strongly to public officers and their acts than to persons acting in their individual capacity; for a public officer above all others should know the law appertaining to his office and official duties and should, in view of his official character and authority, act with the greatest circumspection, so as to do no wrong to anyone who may be affecetd by his acts .

5. The rule that one is answerable for the results of his wilful and malicious acts (as wilfullness and malice are above defined) is just as applicable to executive officers (those clothed with discretion) as it is to purely administrative officers, who are not so clothed.

6. Those cases which hold that while the Courts will compel by mandamus, the performance of a purely administrative duty, as to the performance of which the officer has no discretion, the Judicial Branch may not interfere with the exercise of executive discretion, lodged in officers by the Constitution, are inapplicable to the question which is under consideration here.

Where, in the exercise of the officers discretion, action against resulting injury already has been taken, the Judicial Branch will afford the injured party a remedy, which in the case we are considering, must be a judgment requiring reimbursement.

7. It is no defense for an administrative officer to say that he acted in accordance with an enactment of Congress, if such enactment were unconstitutional and therefore, void; neither is it a defense for such officer to say that he acted in accordance with an order of his superior, if the superior was not authorized to give the order.

8. From the foregoing, it follows that, if the Secretary of the Treasury has expended public money for purposes not authorized by the Constitution of the United States, he and all the heads of Commissions, Boards and Bureaus who participated in the expenditure, are liable to have judgment rendered against them for the amount of the resulting loss; for joint tortfeasors (wrong-doers) are jointly and severally liable.

9. The Attorney General might refuse to file a suit; but a Taxpayer may sue in the name and for the benefit of the United States, willy-nilly the Attorney General.

10. The present Executive might refuse to enforce the judgment but his successor might enforce it within the time limit.

11. Congress, at whose door lies the primary guilt, might relieve a party from payment of the judgment, for the Judiciary may not inquire into motives of one of the other departments; but if by the time the judgement was rendered the complexion of Congress had changed, it might be impossible to put thru a bill for that purpose.

12. Where, as in the recent history of the United States, the Constitution has been flouted as an outworn "Horse & Buggy" document and, in spite of the Supreme Court decision on the NRA case, re-affirming the oft repeated opinions, the President has openly displayed, those decisions to the contrary notwithstanding, his fixed intention to violate those vital Constitutional principles, well understood by all informed & intelligent persons (the division of powers of government between the General Government, on the one hand and the States, respectively on the other, the distribution among three branches, of the powers granted to the General Government) it ought not to be difficult to convince even a prejudiced jury, not only of the violation of the Constitution by the President and his co-adjutors, but that it was both wilfull and malicious within these definitions of those terms given above.

Unfortunately it cannot be hoped that the PRESENT House of Representatves will impeach the President of open violation of his oath of office and of the Constitution he promised, under oath, to Preserve, Protect and Defend, or that if so impeached, the present Senate would convict him; for the majorities in both those houses are PARTICEPS CRIMINIS with him; but possibly some of his aids and abettors, if not the President himself, may be reached in the manner here suggested.
